Easily adaptable, 4th year college student with a Technical Degree in Software Development. Worked 12 months as Teacher's Aide, helping people learn the fundamentals of programming. Aiming to leverage academic experience and a proven knowledge of software documentation, application development and agile methodologies to successfully fill the role at your company. Frequently referred to as a proactive problem solver by my peers, I can be relied upon to help your company achieve its goals. Four of my projects have been proposed by my teachers to be presented at ExpoCenfo (a yearly event where university presents its best projects).
